WALKING GOWN OF TURQUOISE GRAY FACE CLOTH WITH VEST AND REVERS OF DOTTED WHITE.

MR. M'KINLEY THE SUBJECT.

THE SOCIETY FOR POLITICAL STUDY DE-VOTES AN AFTERNOON TO DISCUSSION.

RESOLUTIONS EXPRESSING EARNEST SYMPATHY WITH THE PRESIDENT ADOPTED-MANY

The closing session for the season of the Society

Political Study was distinguished for the harmony and dignity that marked its proceedings. Not that there were no differences of opinion expressed regarding the policy pursued by President McKinley, who was the subject of the day's discussion, but that, owing to the gravity of the situation and the burden which even his opponents | The Santa Clara Sanitarium, fresh-air work, a acknowledged he was bearing upon his shoulders. the mantle of charity was allowed to fall upon Mrs. Helen Clarke told the story of his antecedents, his early life, his war record, his political history and the present crisis.

ents, his early life, his istory and the present crisis.

"His career has been wise and statesmanlike," the secretary, who was intimately connected with Mrs. Irving, having socied as her private secretary, his and stand by him need not be suggested that the Indian scholarship would be an him this. she said. those who love him and stand by him need not be afraid his popularity will be disturbed by his in these eventful, history-making days," she said, "we have been led to ask, What is the nice discrimination between a statesman and a politician? A politician thinks of the next election. A statesman thinks of the next generation. statesman thinks of the next generation. A pol-trician thinks of himself and party. A states-man works for his nation. President McKinley stands a statesman before the world, with the blessing of all those who are lovers of the Prince

'Discussion is open; time waits not," said Mrs. Hanaford.

Mrs. Tucker rose to the occasion.

"I wanted Bryan," she "I wanted Bryan, and selection; but in this crisis McKinley is the man for the place, and I am glad he got it."

Mrs. Warner agreed with Mrs. Tucker, and said with spirit:

"President McKinley is a man in the right place."

Mrs. Remington mildly and poetically took issue:

Mrs. Remington mildly and poetically took issue:

The gold that has come into the country." she
"The gold that has come into the country." she
"The gold that has come into McKinley's policy, but election; but in this crisis McKinley is the man for said, "has not been due to McKinley's policy, but it is the gold of the beautiful fields of golden grain that I saw in the West. We should thank Provi-Dr. Gunn and Miss Stevens also spoke, taking issues with the previous speakers.

Miss Alice Mitchell, who wrote "The New Liber-Miss Alice Mitchell, who wrote ty Bell' and sang it at the World's Fair, was introduced to the sudience. In place of a speech she said she would sing the song, as she thought the said she would sing the song, as she thought the said she would sing the song, as she thought the bell "was about to strike again." Before singing, she told the story of the bell's casting, saying that melted in it were bullets from hattle-fields and melted in it were bullets from hattle-fields and mings from the fingers of dead heroes. At the conclusion of the song. The Star Spangled Hanner was sung, the audience joining in the chorus. Mrs. Lillie Devereux Blake said that she, too, was a contributor to that bell having added the was a contributor to that bell having added the was a contributor to that bell having added the tiny steel pen with which Governor Alouzo B. Cornell had signed the first Woman Suffrage bill to the State. She spoke in defence of the President. "Do people realize." she said, "that if we had rushed into war we had but ten rounds of ammunition on hand, only enough to fire a sainte." Miss America Phillips thought the President did not want war and she was sure she did not. "We don't want Hawail." she said, "we don't want don't want to own any low-down isiands." "Only "gasted some of her audience." ty Bell" and sang it at the World's Fair, was in-don't want Hawall. She said, we don't want to own any low-down islands."

"Oh!" "Oh!" gasped some of her audience.

"Oh!" "Oh!" gasped some of her audience.

In summing up the discussion, Mrs. Hanaford in summing up the discussion, Mrs. Hanaford in summing up the discussion, Mrs. Hanaford in summing up the discussion seems to be one of great peace and harmony glon seems to be one of great peace and harmony glon seems to be one of great peace and harmony glon seems to have expressed their opinions, and those who have not upheld him have refrained from disturbing the serenty of the meeting.

Mrs. Lilie Devereux Blake then read the following resolutions, which were adopted despite a few yotes to the contrary.

"Whereas, We realize the deep sense of responsibility and the overwheiming analety which must oppress the President of the United States at this critical hour of the Nation's history, therefore, Resolved, That as women we desire to express to President McKinley our earnest sympathy with him in the burden of care which rests upon him, our reliance upon his high integrity, our appreciation of his wisdom in securing the delays needful for a proper preparation for hostilities, and our confidence that he will do all in his power to avert confidence that he will do all in his power to avert from our land the unteld herrors which war will surely bring."

wirely bring."

Mrs. Antoinette Stone Blackwell thought President McKinley's delay had been a wonderful blessing to the Nation. She also expressed her sympathy as a woman with the Queen Regent of Spain, upon whom to day so heavy a burden rests. This closed the work of the Saclety for Political Bludy for the summer, the next meeting being anhounced for October 11.

THE DAY'S GOSSIP.

"Raphael" is the subject of a lecture to be given by Miss Josephine Walton at the home of Mrs. Will-iam F. Havemeyer, No. 19 East Fifty-seventh-st., at II o'clock this morning.

Under the auspices of the alumnae of the Veltin School a "song folio" will be given this evening at Carnegie Lyceum, for the benefit of a scholarship at Barnard College. The soloists will be Mrs. Anna Bulkeley Hills, Mrs. S. M. Hard, Miss Ethel Crane. C. B. Hawley and Charles Herbert Clark. A dance will be given by Miss Haviland.

pointment of the five women members of the Board of Education in July. A petition signed by fifteen hundred teachers has been secured, and both President Swanstrom of the local Board and City Superintendent Maxwell have testified to the excellence of the work done by the women. Mr. Swanstrom says that he thinks a Board of School Trustees having a certain proportion of capable women on it will do more efficient work and accomplish greater results than one composed soiely of men. A musical will be given by Mrs. Adele Lacis Baid-Win at the home of Mrs. Joseph W. Ogden, No. 36 West Fifty-eighth-st, at 4:20 o'clock this afternoon.

Dr. Edward Everett Hale will lecture this after-noon at 2:30 o'clock in Assembly Hall, Pratt Insti-tute, Brooklyn. His subject will be "Some Rem-iniscences of Holmes, Lowell and Emerson."

The regular social meeting of Chiropean will take place to-day at the Knapp Mansion, Brooklyn. The Committee on Philanthropy, Mrs. George Nichols, chairman, has charge of the programme for the day. "Our Motives in Giving" is the topic for discussion.

Mrs. Bertha Welby will read a paper on "Political Current Events" before the West End Woman's "Our Motive and the programme for the Southern homes and the wonderful caverns of old Southern homes and the wonderful caverns of the wonderful caverns of the caverns of the WOMAN KLONDIKERS.

THEY WILL LEAVE SEATTLE IN MAY AND TAKE THE RIVER ROUTE TO THE ELDORADO.

MRS M'DANNOLD, THE LEADER OF THE EXPEDI TION, IS CONFIDENT OF SUCCESS, BUT SAYS THE GAME IS WORTH PLAYING

The third morning musical of the Haarlem Philharmonic Society will take place to-day at 11 a.m. of the various methods of transportation to the in the hall of the Harlem Young Men's Christian and only feasible way for women to make the trip to Dawson City is by the river route, and she has A lecture on "The Art of the Ancient Greeks: The Period of Perioles to the Period of the Roman Woman's Klondike Expedition transportation on Captain Taibot's boats, which leave Seattle in May. Empire" will be given by George S. Kellogg at Columbus Hall, West Sixtleth-st., between Columbus and Amsterdam aves. this evening at 8 o'clock.
This is the second of two lectures on "Greek Art" to Dawson City, including 250 pounds of baggage, given under the auspices of the Board of Education.

The rate for each person will be 100 from Seattle to Dawson City, including 250 pounds of baggage, with berths and meals for the entire trip. All bagchapters and Young People's societies of the Meth-dist Episcopal churches in this district will be carried at its cents a pound. Special accommodations have been made by the company for Mrs. M. Dannold's party. Transportation is by ocean steamers to the mouth larger to the mouth. edist Episcopal churenes in this district will be held to-day in the St. James's Methodist Episcopal church, One-hundred-and-twenty-sixth-st, and Madison-ave. The convention will be called to order at 2 o'clock.

of the Yukon, and from there by specially adaptive boats to Dawson City. The latter will be managed by Captain Talbot, who has been doing business on the river for the last twenty-five years, can be A bazaar will be held by Sewing Society No. 2 of The outfit, with provisions for one year, can be the Swedish Lutheran Gustavus Adolphus Church secured by Mrs. McDannold for $150 and upward.

in the chapel, Nos. 151 and 153 East Twenty-second-st., to-day, to-morrow and Saturday. The doors will be open at 4 o'clock. vary according to the purse, season, section of Alaska to which you are going and the length of your stay there," Mrs. McDannold says. "The peo-ple of New-York State do not all clothe themselves The Women's String Orchestra Society will give the last of a series of three concerts this evening at the Mendelssohn Glee Club Hall, Fortieth-st, and Broadway. to be pitied. They buy more things they don't want Natural History. West Seventy-seventh-st., a than things they really need. It takes a careful, French lecture on "Le rôle social de l'écrivain" clear head to select the things required "

French lecture on "Le rôle social de l'écrivain" will be given by Professor René Doumic at 3.30 o'clock this afternoon. In securing her own outfit Mrs. McDannold is having the assistance of Mrs. "Mike" Kelly, whose At the meeting of the Cincinnati (Ohio) Chapter husband is to be the "guide, prospector and prothe Daughters of the American Revolution, to tector" of the party. A good many of her garments were made under Mrs. Kelly's personal direction. "Nips" are a species of sock, but reach only to the ankle. They are made of clastic web material, with thick wool on the inside, and are worn over boots. Mrs. Kelly is also helping the other women of the party with their outlits. trial Home at the house of Mrs. S. R. Forman, No.

be held to-day in the literary clubrooms, a pa-triotic programme will be given in celebration of the Battle of Lexington.

Miss Charlotte Sulley will give a dramatic recita for the benefit of the Newman Mission and Indus-

The kindergarten of the East Side Chapel, No

404 East Fifteenth-st, will give an entertainment this afternoon in the form of a little opera called

The Inscovery of America." The score was prepared last summer, and the children have been prac-tising all winter, so that they now know their party perfectly. The affair will last only an hour and will begin at 3 o'clock. The audience is asked to come a quarter of an hour earlier, so as not so disturb the children.

ST. JOHN'S SCHOOL SOCIETY.

MANY BRANCHES OF CHARITABLE WORK

PROPOSED-DECISION NOT YET MADE The St. John's School Society met vesterday after

50 West Fifty-fourth-st. for the purpose of deciding what line of work the organization should adopt scholarship in some one of the National Industria schools for Indians or negroes, or memorial work appropriate choice. Mrs. Irving had always been deeply interested in the education of the Indians.

"WOMEN'S WORK" THEIR TOPIC

HOW IT IS CARRIED ON AMONG THE

ALASKANS, MORMONS, MEXICANS,

FREEDMEN AND "POOR WHITES."

The pleasant audience-room of the Woman's Board of Home Missions of the Presbyterian Church was filled Tuesday morning with women interested in "Women's Work," the topic of the Mrs. Weston occupied the chair. The meeting was opened with a responsive service entitled "Praise from Women." Requests for prayer were presented by Miss Perkins from the Christian Endeavor So-clety in Dawson City, in the Klondike region, the most northerly Christian Endeavor Society in the Appreciating the difficulty that women, even women of the Presbyterian Board, sometimes have in putting into exact words the scope and aim of their society. Mrs. Weston took up the role of entechist, eliciting the definition that the specific object of the Woman's Board of Home Missions

WOMEN ON SCHOOL BOARDS.

The women teachers of Brooklyn and several influential societies interested in educational work are making strenuous efforts to secure the reap-pointment of the five women members of the Board

An entertainment in aid of the persecuted Assyrians and suffering Christians in Armenia, and of other charities connected with the Woman's Missionary Society of St. James's Episcopal Church, was given yesterday afternoon in the Sunday-school room of the church by Mrs. Henry J. Glelow, of gusta S. Rossiter, freasurer.

360 Bergen ave. Jersey City, this evening, beginning at $15 o'clock. Miss Sulley will be assisted by Miss Lucy Mabel Presby, coprano, and Miss Marguerite Anderson, accompanist.

expert miners and Klondikers mply with it escorted out of the flighter. The McDigmondid Mrs. McDigmondid's son, is her

WILL CONTEST FOR THE CUP.

MRS RICE AND MRS ROGERS DELEGATES TO THE WHIST CONGRESS IN PHILADELPHIA

"HELP YOURSELF SOCIETY."

DR. EGAN ADVISES RED CROSS NURSES TO GO TO THE WAR WITH PLENTY

ceived for places as nutses by the Red Cross Society, and one hundred and fifty have been accept d and are now taking emergency lectures prepara-ory to entering upon field work. The applications have come from nearly every nationality including Society and private secretary to the Right Hon Clara Barton as well. The latter had just arrived from Washington, where he has left Miss Barton Dr. Carpenter dweit particularly upon the ap-

Dr. carpenter dweit particularly upon the approved methods of making and applying handages and tring knots when bandages were at hand. For Egan told what to do when none of the ordinary appliances were at hand. "If there are no handages," he said, "tear up yet own clothes. Dr. Hundell has taken his shirt off time and again in an emergency, or use leaves or throm plants. If you should have a fractured jew to deal with take a lost of bread, if there is nothing class, soak it in water, bind it on firmly, and when it hardens it makes the lost possible splint. The heady of it is too," and Dr. Egan, practically, "that a regular surgeon's splint costs about $1.9c, while a lost of bread is the centinesd, "quick-ness is the folia.

was the educational work, which included the raising of money for scholarships, teachers salaries, school buildings, equipments and the expansion and prosecution of school work, the diffusing of information regarding the home mission work, and the providing of home mission boxes. One hundred and twenty-eight schools and two hundred and actively seven leachers are under the care of this board, the work being carried on among the Alaskans, Mormons, Mexicans, freedmen and poor whites of the South. Mrs. Hoyd gave an interesting paper relative to the formation and work of the Board, paying a teuching tribute to the minories of Mrs. Green and Mrs. Haines, who drew up the office of Mrs. Green and Mrs. Haines, who drew up the gratifule for what we have been able to do in the past, with God's help, but we mean to do better next year, whicher war comes or does not?

General Morgan, the executive officer of the Baptied Home Board, engaged in the selection of mission work in progress at mainest Mission, Chinal Juneau and Sitks. At Chilcat the natives are changing their abodes from communal houses, where tear here abodes from communal houses, where tear or twelve families were formerly housed, where tear or twelve families were formerly housed, where tear or trevelve families were formerly housed, where the patient will what medicines

COLLEGE WOMEN'S CLUB ANNUAL.

The College Women's Club held a reception yesterday afternoon at Sherry s, where, besides the so-ial intercourse enjoyed, a musical programme was offered for the entertainment of the company assembled. An address was made by Dr. Henry M. MacCracken, Chancellor of the New-York University. Professor John Francis Woodhull, of the Teachers' College, spoke on "College Women in the Teaching Profession," and George Welton Fishback, ex-secretary United States Legation at The music contributed was as follows: Soprano soil. "The Robin's Song in the Apple Tree," by McDowel; "Matidata. by Tost; and an "Echo Song" of the sixteenth century. These three were sung by Miss Molly Brown, accompanied by Mrs. J. Henry McKinley. The contraits song, were tendered by Miss Carrie Bridewell, and were Mattel's "Lullaby" and Goddard's "Florian's Song." During the social hour which followed the completion of the programme tea and refreshments were served.

The officers of the club are Mrs. Enenos Ayres, talked on social life in Latin Amer-served.

The officers of the club are Mrs. J. C. Irwin-Martin, president, Mrs. O. D. M. Baker, Mrs. S. N. Penfield and Miss Georgia M. Penfield, vice-presidents; Mrs. Herman Meyer, secretary; Mrs. Edmund C. Stout, treasurer, and Mrs. A. C. Rogers and Mrs. John W. Hutchinson, jr., directors.

Have you had a kindness shown?
Pass it on,
'Twas not given for you alone—
Pass it on.
Let it travel down the years,
Let it wipe another's tears,
Till in heaven the deed appears—
Pass it on,

Communications have been received from Miss Louise M. Pond, C. A. F., Mrs. Mabel Eggleston, Mary J. Clark Nettle J. Bartlett, Mrs. L. S. Mary L. Clark, Nettle J. Bartlett, Mrs. L. S. Greves, Susie D. Crafts, Mrs. W. I. Wood, Mrs. Greves, Susie D. Crafts, Mrs. W. I. Wood, Mrs. Annie L. Mahler, Miss M. E. Crouch, Mrs. L. T. Ingham, Mrs. S. Leibert, Mrs. Daniel Gibson, C. E. S. W. W. Wilcox, Miss Phoebe A. Boughman, F. H. B., Maysie E. Shelley, Mrs. A. Mrs. Spencer, Blennie Sickmond, C. B. Daiton, Mary Rankin, Biennie Sickmond, C. B. Daiton, Mary Rankin, Birdie Young, E. L. C., Miss K. Miller, A. W. V. Minnie E. Risdon, E. T. Macdonald, Dorothea Arnold Pearne, Mrs. F. L. Pomeroy, L. A. U., Miss Sarah E. Stone, M. H., Miss E. P. Bowne, Mrs. F. E. Fisher, Mrs. M. I. Jackson and Mrs. E. P. Nosedham.

The following contributions have been sent in: A box of arbuius from Mrs. Fannie E. Fisher; a bundle containing three beautiful cradle quilts. workbasket, glove-mender hairpin case, mirror bag and crocheted catch-all bag, from A. W. V. book-cover, from a T. S. S. member, box of violets, cherry blossoms and Mayflowers, from Mrs. M. J. Meeker, Woman's Pages, from Mrs. R. A. Clark, A. E. S., S. A. H. and S. A. N., muste, pictures and magazines, from Mrs. M. M. Eggleston; magazines and books, from Mrs. H. P. Andersim, and Scients in stamps "For the cause," from W. W. W.

Sunshine distributed: Papers were sent to Mrs. F V. Frishee, cancelled stamps from Mrs. Louise Turner to A. Lawkowski, booklet to Lucille Bow-Turner to A. Lawkowski, booklet to Lucille Bow-ker, reading matter to Mrs. Royal Gage and Miss Eisle J. Hurd. Biblical cards to the "Little Mothers": reading matter to Libble Come; music and pictures to Miss. Elia Ammerman, from Mrs. Ergelston. The generous contribution of J. Augus-tus Rice, of several bounds of Easter candles and beautiful Easter cards, was sent to the T. S. S. members in the Orphan Asylum, Brooklyn, and the pretty tabbits went to other young members.

otte Fowler Wells, Mrs. W. S. Moore, Mrs. Martha M. Morris, Mrs. E. Burdsall, M. E. Backus, Mrs. L. Lyle, Miss Harriet H. Jones, Libbie Como, Caroline Allen, Filzabeth Eilis, Gertrude Swerlland, Mrs. J. H. Miller, Suste D. Crafts, Mrs. Louise M. Pend, F. H. B. Dorothes Arnold Fearne, Eliza-beth Cheney and Mrs. C. D. Fastorius.

"Mr. Kelly knows every foot of the Klondike district," she wrate to a friend in this city, "and he says there are just as likely creeks and rivers still unprospected as any that now with the hope that it may bring comfort in the present dark hour of personal affliction and sorrow.

Speak low to me, my Saviour, low and sweet, Frem out the hallelujains, sweet and low, Lest I should fear and fall and miss Thee so Who art not missed by any that entreat Speak to me as to Mary at Thy feet; And If no preclous gens my hands bestow, Let my tears drop like amber, while I go In reach of Thy divinest voice complete in humanest affection, thus, in sooth, To lose the sense of lesing-as a could Whose conglited seess the wood for evermore is sung to in its stead by mother's mouth. Till, staking on her breast, love-recondied, He sleeps the faster that he wept before terday in a box that hore no name. All the Christ-

TRIPS OF THE COACHES.

Congress is to meet in Horticultural Hall bernoons will be devoted to business and the great evenings to play prizes have been donated for the congress.

Output

Description of the public coach Good Times to Woodmansten Inn. Westchester. His guests included Mrs. William A Duer. Miss Katherine Duer, his flances.

William A Duer. Miss Katherine Duer, his flances. William A Duer Miss Katherine Duer, his finness.
Miss Bronon, Philip Lydig and W. P. Burden, T.
Suffern Tailler was the whip.
The seach Ploneer, on his trip from the Holland House to the Casho at Arisley-on-the-Hudson, yesterially arried sing-party guests of W. Watta Sherman. In the party were A. Newhold Morris, Pratis,
S. Witherbee, I. K. Wilmerding, Monson Morris,
Mr. Taylor, Mr. Bishop, Mr. Bacher, Mr. Higginsan,
John S. Harnes Mr. Field and Mr. Grocker, Mr.
Bronson was the whip. J. Roosevelt Roosevelt alsodrive one of two of the stages.

THE TRIBUNE PATTERN.

A TISSUE PAPER PATTERN OF A SUMMUR WAIST, NO. 1275, FOR COUPON AND TEN CENTS.

The most popular variation of the blouse in its indoor form combines the plain back with the pouched front. The model shown is suited to both silk and soft wool stuffs, such as cashmere and henrietta, but as illustrated it is made of white show slight ful-

at the shoulder, where they support slashed epaulets, which are of the satin lined with slik, and are finished with a cord. The extra length silk, and are finished with a core.

is turned back at the wrists to form narrow cuffs, satin-faced. At the neck is a full collar of the green satin, and at the waist a full belt and bow of the same. The waist is shown with a skirt of the same preferric it is equally suited to the sepa-

To make this skirt for a woman in the medium size will require four and three-quarter yards of twenty-two-inch material, with three-quarters of a yard for yoke and front. The pattern, No. 7,275, is cut in sizes for a 32, 34, 36, 38 and 40 inch waist measure.

COUPON ENTITLING TO ONE PATTERN ANY SIZE OF NO. 7,275. Cut this out, fill in with name and address, and mail It to THE PATTERN DEPARTMENT

OF THE TRIBUNE,

GIRLS' MANUAL TRAINING SCHOOL

A PROPOSAL TO ESTABLISH ONE IN EACH DISTRICT WHERE ONE HUNDRED GIRLS

MAY BE RECEIVED. A meet of the Committee on Organization for the day afternoon at the home of Mrs. Melbert B. Cary. cal, the secretary, read a paper explaining the manner in which the idea developed and some of the workings along similar lines. She said in part: open to girls and young women who have been fitted for any special branch, and those who are able to bring any testimony of ability can generally find employment, but the untrained girl is usually thrown on her own resources suddenly, and has no equipment with which to meet the situation. It is this class we want to reach-the girls who at twelve not having received sufficient education to be of use to them in finding work, and yet are obliged to do something. The poorest of these are obliged to fall back upon sweat work or equally ill-paid and confining industries; the next grade find places as be contented with the least pleasant kinds, becoma servant even fairly well. All this because they

"There has been much philanthropic work done among these classes," continued Miss Pascal, "and to the philanthropists we must appeal now. Schools where these girls can go and receive some hours' training daily will be of vast benefit not only to them but to the community. By their help a girl may be able to ascertain what she is fitted for, and lose no time in making her effort in the right direction. One girl helped in this way was found to have a decided talent for drawing; a little more work among the girls.

Mess Pascal mamed a number of prominent society women whose named a number of prominent society women whose names were enrolled upon the Board of Managers, among them were Mrs. Henry S. Adams, Mrs. Joseph F. Knapp, Mrs. Ralph Trautman and Mrs. Theodere Surro. She also announced that the fund of $5.00 which it was thought necessary to raise would be divided into scholarships of $60 cuch for those disposed to take so large a one, but smaller amounts would be arranged for. Twenty of these scholarships were, Miss Pascal said appeals to the second state of the second secon ty of these scholarships were, Miss Pascal said, already promised.

THE REV. DR. ECCLESTON RESIGNS.

Rev. Dr. Eccleston's connection with the began forty two years ago, the time includ-intergram from 1821 to 1895, during which, sons of health he held rectorates in New-J and Great Barrington, Mass, while the homas R. Cinrad filled the pulpit at St.

THE KING ART SALE.

e second night's sale of E. J. King's collection w Remarkante or these the "Jan Asselyn," brought tion, followed in the evening by a dance at the

ON THE OCEAN COUNTY LINKS.

Lakewood. April 20 (Special) In the series for the President Gould Cup at the Ocean County links to-day, Mrs. E. Walker Robbins made the high score of 112 which her handleap of 4 made 108 net. Miss Agnes 14 Dayis, playing from scratch, made 123. Agnes H Davis, blaying from scratch, made 123.
According to the schedule, there is only one more match to finish the series although it is possible that three pastroned matches may be played off. I miss the paying of sich games afters results, Mrs. Davis is the winner of the trophy, points in the series standing as follows. Miss Davis, 3%, Mrs. Valker, 24. Miss Helen Parrish, 18, Mrs. A. B. Chullan, 16. Mrs. John L. Stewart, 9, Mrs. F. M. Harrison, 5.

over it and finished with a cord of green allk. The full fronts turn back to form tiny reversible.

There were nity delegates present from this city and many more from out of town. The exercises of the day were opened with prayer by Dr. J. H. Yanuali. In the absence of Dr. I. J. Whitney, who was detained by illness in his family, Dr. George W. Hookowitz was chosen as chairman.

After rollcall Dr. W. R. Snooner welcomes vers that are delegates on behalf of resident members of the self-faced, and society. He urged upon the members of the society the left side hooks invisiby maintaining and extending its influence. The presinto place. The entation of credentials and reports from auxiliary societies followed, and the report of the Board of Censors was read. Dr. C. W. Abbott, of the Massa-chusetts Eclectic Medical Society, afterward made a short address, and Dr. Pitts Edwin Howas, corresponding secretary of the National Eclectic responding secretary of the National Eclectic So-clety, also spoke briefly of the work of the society. At the afternoon session essays on various topics were read by Drs. O. A. Hyde, H. Armgardt, M. Meyer, G. O. Heffier, P. J. Rheinle, H. C. Hinds, S. J. Jagers, A. W. Herzog, C. W. Brandenburg, D. N. Bulsor, J. H. Yarnall, E. H. Muncle, O. H. Rhode, F. E. Hill, J. P. Nolan, W. O. Balley, E. Irwin, H. S. Blackfan, A. E. Park and A. R. Tiel, The convention will be continued to-day.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES HELD. The commencement exercises of the Eclectic Medical College were held last night. The address

Medical Codege were neid last night. The address of the evening was delivered by the Rev. Merie St. Croix Wright. It was preceded by an invocation from the Rev. A. C. Morehouse. Dr. G. W. Hoskowitz, dean of the college, spoke for the faculty, and Earl H. King delivered the valedictory address. Degrees were conferred by Dr. W. R. Spooner on sixteen graduates. MARITIME EXCHANGE NOMINATIONS.

A meeting of the members of the Maritime Exchange was held yesterday for the purpose of nominating officers and directors to be voted for at the annual election to be held next Tuesday. The following nominations were made: For president, Lester W. Beasley; vice-president, John V. Barnes; trea urer, Louis T. Romaine; directors, to serve for two years, John A. Cormack, J. Raymond Smith, W. V. Nichols, Albert Spencer, P. V. L. Jones and George B. Lockhart.

WEDDINGS PAST AND TO COME

Old Trinity Church, Broadway and Wall-st., was at noon yesterday the scene of the wedding of Miss Mary Maynadier Steele, a daughter of the Rev. Dr. James Nevett Steele, to Theodore Wilson Morris, jr. The choral music was rendered by the regular choir of the church, and the instrumental part by Victor Baler at the chancel organ and Herman Wetzier at the gallery organ. The church was filled with the friends of the couple. As the bridesmaids came from the north and south vestries to meet the bride at the foot of the middle aisle the choir sang Barnby's "Oh, Perfect Love," and as the procession moved along to the chancel both organs played the "Lohengrin" wedding march. The bride, who was in a gown of white chiffon over satin, trimmed with soms, with tulle vell, and a pearl necklace, worn by her grandmother, Mrs. H. D. Aldrich, of this city, on her wedding day, was escorted to the chancel and given away by her uncle, Charles Steele. Miss Ruth Steele and Miss Carolyn Merrill were the flower-girls, and Miss Mary Ely, a cousin of the bride; Miss Valerie Worthington, of Washington, D. C.; Miss Elizabeth Jewett and Miss Florence Merrall were the bridesmalds. Miss Sophie H. Ross was the maid of honor. Du Bois S. Morris was his brother's best man, and the bride's brother. James Nevett Steele, ir.: James P. Atkinson, Frederick Moses, Edgar Morris, brother of the bridegroom: Sheppard Homans, ir. and Ralph B. Smith were the ushers. Immediately after the ceremony, which was performed by the rector of Trinity Parish, the Rev. Dr. Morgan Dix, assisted by the bride's father, who is vicar of Trinity, there was a reception at the home of the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Steele, No. 15 West Eighteenth-st. Among the guests were Mrs. Morgan Dix, Mrs. H. D. Aldrich, grandmother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Aldrich, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore W. Morris, st., Mr. and Mrs. J. Leon Moran, Mr. and Mrs. E. Percy, Moran, Mr. and Mrs. Emery, Miss Lewis and Miss Noble.

Miss May Kathryn Irvin, the only daughter of Mrs. Katherine Irvin, of No. 134 East Seventy-fourth-st., was married yesterday to Moses Joseph Perault, of Fitchburg, Mass., in St. Vincent Ferrer's Church, Lexington-ave, and Sixty-sixth-st. The ceremony was performed at 10 o'clock by the Rev. Matthew L. Hagan, of the Dominican Order, who also celebrated the nuptial mass. The bride, in a gown of white satin, trimmed with pearls and lace

Samuel de la Plaine Eilis, fr., was solemnized at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the home of the Fifty-seventh st. The Rev. Dr. John Wesley Brown, rector of St. Thomas's Protestant Episcopal Church, officiated at the ceremony, which was followed by a reception. The bride wore a gown of white CUNTINUED ILL-HEALTH OF THE PASTOR OF ST. JUHN'S CHURCH, OF CLIFTON, STATEN ISLAND.

There was surprise on Staten Island yesterday when it became known that the Rev. Dr. John C. Engleston, rector of St. John's Episcopal Church, Clifton, Staten Island, offered his resignation to the vestry. St. John's is the church in which the late commodore Vanderbilt worshiped when he was a resident of Staten Island.

A largely attended wedding yesterday afternoon meeting of the wardens was held your considered to the wardens was held was been discovered until his return in the latter part of the ways on a vacation action was dered until his return in the latter part of the was celebrated in the Madison Avenue was celebrated was celebrated in the Madison Avenue was celebrated was celebrated in the Madison Avenue was celebrated was celebra understood that Dr. Ercleston's resignation is to ill-health as the pastor has been ill for the literature of however, by the vestry or health of however, by the vestry or health of higher to induce by Eccleston to reconsider. bride, performed the ceremony, which was followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents. The bride, attired in a gown of white satin, embellished with lace, was given away by her father.
Her sister, Miss Mary Noxon Sanders, who will be married next autumn to William H. Havs, and the bridespoom's sister, Miss Celia Gould, were the bridesmaids. Charles M. Gould attended his brother as best man. The ushers were Henry C.
French, jr., of Buffalo; Herbert Van Wagener, fr.,
Charles C. Wickwire, William Henry Hays, T.
Harry Wickwire, William B. Symmes, jr., William B. Cushman and Darwin Shaw Hudson. After their honeymoon trip Mr. and Mrs. Gould will take possession of their new home, No. 175 Lenox-ave.

The marriage of Miss Constance Trenholm, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Trenholm, to Dr. Russell Bellamy, took place at 4 o'clock yester-The ceremony was performed assisted by the Rev Dr. Porter, of Charleston, Miss Helene Trenholm, as maid of honor, and by Miss Lilla Bellamy and Miss Mary Jennings Hellamy, of Wilmington, N. C., sisters of the bridegroom. Miss Eliza Bellamy, couls of the bridegroom: Miss Alice Castleman, of Louisville, Ky.; Miss Lucille Nave, of St. Louis, Mo; Miss Langhorre, of Washington, Miss Mattle Quarrier, and Miss Aurile de Moriac, as bridesmaids. Joseph F. Freilminuysen was best man, and the ushers were Edward Liddon Patterson, who took the place of John S. Hallt Lindsay Russell, cousin of the bridegroom of Detroit; I. P. Stokes, Stephen R. Bradley, Ralph H. Holiand, Edwin C. Hoyt, Allan Appleton Bobbins and Louis M. Greer, Among the guests invited to the ceremony and reception were Mrs. George A. Robbins, Colonel and Mrs. Howard Stephenson, of Philadelphia, Dr. and Mrs. Howard Stephenson, of Philadelphia, Dr. and Mrs. Howard Stephenson, of Philadelphia, Dr. and Mrs. Howard Badgley, Mr. and Mrs. Elbridge T. Gerry, the Misses Gerry, R. L. Gerry, Captain and Mrs. Bridgman, Miss Leary, Mrs. Algernon, S. Sullivan, George H. Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Spencer, Dr. and Mrs. H. P. Loomis, Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Flint and Mr. and Mrs. Phipps, of Morristown. by Remarandt brought $16, and the "Triumph | Miss Helene Trenholm, as maid of honor, and by

Miss Geraldine Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. AT THE FORT HAMILTON LINKS.

The first monthly handicap of the season brought of satin are included in the right shoulder seam, and hook over on to the left and beneath the left front, thile the edges the wilst man and hook over on to the left front, thile the edges the wilst man and hook over on to the left front, thile the edges the wilst man and hook over on to the left front, thile the edges the wilst man and hook over on to the left front, thile the edges the wilst man and hook over on to the left front, thile the edges the wilst man and hook over on to the left front, the left front fr William B. Smith, of No. 174 West Eighty-seventh-and Seventy-first-st. The Rev. Dr. Jacob Snipmas, the rector, officiated. The bride, who was given away by her brother, J. Noble Emiey, had as her maid of honor Miss Ethel Bracher. The flower-girl was Miss Margaret Turk. James H. Hickey, of Boston, was best man, and Henry A. Rabino, Henry Warner, Frederick Lacey Beattys and Frits von Breisen were the ushers. A small reception was held after the ceremony at the home of the bride's mother, No. 69 West Eighty-eighth-st.

The marriage of Miss May A. Holland, the only daughter of the late Thomas Claxton Holland and niece of the late Forbes Holland, to Dr. James J. Carey, of Chicago, took place at 6:30 o'clock last evening in the Church of St. Charles Borromeo, One-hundred-and-forty-second-st, near Seventh-One-hundred-and-forty-second-st. near Seventa-ave. The Rev. Henry Gordon, the rector, assisted by the Rev. Dennis Coyle, officiated. The bride, in a gown of crepe de chene, trimmed with duchesse lace, was escorted to the altar and given away by her brother. William Forbes Holland. Her only at-tendant was her coustin, Miss Jule Hennessy. The best man was Thomas C. Holland, and the ushers were Edward V. Holland and William J. Hennessy. The reception, a small one, was held at the home of the bride's mother, No. 243 West One-hundred-and-nity-with-st.

Miss Frances Thorley will be married to Augustus Franklin Goodwin this evening at the home parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thorley, No. 330 West Seventy-second-st/

At Sherry's to-night Miss Rebecca Strauss, daugher of Mr. and Mrs. William Strauss, of No. 128 West One-hundred-and-twenty-first-st., will be mar-ried to Jacob Lax.

OLD CITY GUARD GIVES A RECEPTION. Company C, of the 9th Regiment, sometimes called "The Old City Guard," gave its sixty-fifth annual reception, guard mount and ball last annual reception, guard mount and ball last hight in the armory, in West Fourteenth-st., near Sixth-ave. Captain S. J. Quimby was in command of the company, and Colonel Seward and his staff reviewed the men. The regiments of New-York and Jersey City were largely represented. Over six thousand invitations were issued, and the response was so great that the armory was thronged.

FUNERAL OF GEORGE PARSONS LATEROP. The funeral of George Parsons Lathrop, who died on Tuesday morning at the Roosevelt Hos-pital, will be held at 10 a.m. to-morrow at the Church of the Paulist Fathers. The burial will be private.